Amendment No. 1

Amend House Bill No. 596 by deleting Section 1 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Section 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-1-703, is amended by designating the current language as subsection (a) and by adding new language as follows:

(b) The commissioner of revenue may require, consistent with the cash management policies of the state funding board, that any person owing twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more in connection with any return, report or other document to be filed with the department of revenue shall pay any such tax liability to the state no later than the date such payment is required by law to be made in funds which are immediately available to the state on the date of payment. Payment in immediately available funds may be made by wire transfers of funds through the federal reserve system or by any other means established by the commissioner, with the approval of the state treasurer, which insures the availability of such funds to the state on the date of payment. Evidence of such payment shall be furnished to the commissioner on or before the due date of the tax as established by law. Failure to timely make such payment in immediately available funds or failure to provide such evidence of payment in a timely manner shall subject the taxpayer to penalty and interest as provided by law for delinquent or deficient tax payments. If payment is timely made in other than immediately available funds, penalty and interest shall be added to the amount of tax due from the due date of the tax payment to the date that funds from the tax payment become available to the state.

(c) The commissioner of revenue is authorized to prescribe all rules necessary for the administration of this section.

(d) The commissioner of revenue is specifically authorized to establish by rule periodic filing and payment dates which are subsequent to the dates otherwise established by law for any taxes collected by the department in those instances where he deems it to be in the best interest of the state to do so. Such alternative date shall not, however, be later than the last day of the month in which the tax was otherwise due.

On motion, Amendment No. 1 was adopted.
